With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 24, 1863.

Who is Responsible?

The startling intelligence received during the past week, has painfully excited the apprehensions of loyal men, and caused deep anxiety lest in some way our brave troops have not been unreasonably and imprudently placed in jeopardy. As yet, we have no information sufficient to base an opinion upon, except that Meade was compelled, as if in the twinkling of an eye, to withdraw from his position, when the country had imagined that he was on the highway to victory, and his foe was so depressed by the reported division of the rebel army, that there was no possible danger that Lee would again for a long time assume offensive operations. But we have the old story over again. Our army is for some reason unable to stand against that of the rebels, and we are mortified to hear of its retreat—we are anxious because we fear that the management of the war for two months past has left Meade in a perilous position, and given to the rebellion a new lease of temporary prosperity. We trust we are mistaken, and that the news which is probably now coming to us, will not confirm our fears. There seems to have been no chance to escape a severe battle, and if Lee was so fortunate as to save himself from utter defeat, we shall have something to remember hereafter. The fidelity of the people of the United States deserves a faithful and earnest fidelity on the part of the Administration: it is not enough that the Government make an effort to save its army from peril; we have a right to expect in this stage of the conflict that with its abundant resources, it will be sure of triumph. In the words of the Sacramento Union, (and there is no more loyal paper,) "There are reciprocal obligations between the Administration and the people. The latter have made an immortal record by their patience, fortitude, patriotism and generous sacrifices in this war. They have responded liberally to all appeals for men and money. They have spurned the wiles of traitorous demagogues who have endeavored to lure them from their allegiance and their purpose of sustaining the Government at all hazards and at any cost. In short, they have fulfilled the obligations of devoted, public-spirited citizens. On the other hand, while we cheerfully concede the patriotism and energy of the Administration, we cannot discover the wisdom of certain features of its military management. Having seen how effective, in several instances, the rebel policy of giving up, for the time, all ground except that upon which their concentrated armies are to stand and fight—a policy strictly in accordance with Napoleonic principles of strategy, how is it that at this late period of the war, we are compelled to risk battles at a disadvantage in the point of numbers, when we have at least twice the force of the enemy in the field? Why do we pursue a dozen subordinate objects and neglect the only aim of decisive importance—the thorough defeat of Lee and Bragg? These questions will force themselves upon the minds of even those who are least inclined to criticize and who appreciate the gigantic nature of the task the Administration has in hand."

PROSPECT OF HIGH PRICES.—The Bulletin, alluding to the detention and long passages of six or eight California bound ships, the loss by capture of four of the largest clippers on the voyage out, and the wreck of another off Cape Horn, says "that these mishaps are beginning to have their legitimate effect in the San Francisco market. Many staple goods, usually supplied almost exclusively from Atlantic ports, are running low in stock, and some leading articles are now quite out of market. Prices, in consequence, are well sustained and hardening. Late advices from the East by telegram represent a great falling off in the shipments making to this port via the Horn; occasioned chiefly by the high prices to which they have advanced there, (payable in paper,) to the exorbitant rates demanded for freight in ships bound to California, and to the heavy rates of insurance charged for the marine and war risks, coupled with the increased risks of the venture. These and other causes have greatly diminished shipments of merchandise, and must eventually cause a great scarcity here of many leading commodities, some of which are now and have been ruling low for a year past."

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.—Recent Victoria papers announce that Arthur E. Kennedy, formerly an officer in the British Army, and lately Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Western Australia, has been appointed Governor of Vancouver's Island. Frederic Seymour, at present Lieutenant-Governor of Honduras, is appointed Governor of British Columbia.

The same papers also have the following in regard to Governor Douglas, from the London Gazette:

The Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of James Douglas, Esq., C. B., Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Vancouver's Island and the Colony of British Columbia, to be an ordinary member of the Civil Division of the Second Class or Knights Commanders of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath.

THE SENTENCE OF THE CHAPMAN TRAITORS.—Greathouse, Rubery and Harpending were yesterday brought up for sentence in the U. S. District Court. The Court was densely crowded with spectators. The prisoners were asked if they had anything to urge why sentence should not be pronounced on them, and each having implied that he had nothing to say, Judge Field passed sentence on them severally in the following words:

"Aubery Harpending, Alfred Rubery, and Ridgely Greathouse, you have been indicted for the crime of engaging in and giving aid and comfort to the existing rebellion against the United States, their authority and laws, and upon the issue joined by you upon that indictment the jury have pronounced you guilty, and in the justice of that verdict the Court fully concurs. The offense of which you have been convicted is treason—the highest offense known to the law. By the law of all other civilized nations that offense is punishable with death. But the Government of the United States, in its magnanimity, has distinguished between the crime of those who originally incited the present rebellion, and in the earliest stages carried it on, and those who, since July 17th, 1862, have engaged in it and assisted in its prosecution, and for the offense committed by you has provided only the punishment of imprisonment and fine. The magnitude of your crime demands that your punishment should be severe.

Aubery Harpending, Alfred Rubery, and Ridgely Greathouse—the judgment of the Court against you is that each of you be imprisoned for the period of 10 years, and that you each pay a fine to the United States of $10,000; that your imprisonment be in the county jail of the county of San Francisco until Congress provides some other place for your imprisonment."

The prisoners received their sentences with perfect equanimity and seemed to be perfectly cool and collected.—S. F. Paper, 16th.

UNCONDITIONAL PATRIOTISM.—The California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at its recent session adopted unanimously the following resolutions, which every loyal man will be glad to read and cheerfully endorse:

Resolved, That with our whole hearts we approve the President's Proclamation of Emancipation, and also his more recent proclamation, in which he publishes his determination to extend the same protection to colored soldiers, under the laws of war, which is extended to white soldiery of the Government.

Resolved, That we possess as many and as sacred "inalienable" rights as any other class of citizens, and are as ready to perform the duties which they enjoin, and to defend the privileges which they imply.

Resolved, That we congratulate ourselves upon the uniform and conscientious loyalty of the entire body of our people, and we hasten to say to them from this place of convocation: Brethren in Christ, fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God, well done.

Resolved, That in the recent political success of the Union party in this State—a party made up of all creeds except the creed of treason—we see much cause to rejoice, not as partisans who hope to reap spoils from victory, but as patriots who deprecate civil strife, love our country, and pray for an honorable and enduring peace.

Resolved, That, as the national cause, "Our steadfast faith on God relies: Deliverance soon will come."

Resolved, That all that we have and all that we are, we hold, under God, subject to the call of the legitimate Government of the United States of America.

THE VICKSBURG PRISONERS.—Reliable and decisive information has been received here by the military and political authorities that, in violation of the cartel and the laws and usages of war, Jeff. Davis is reinforcing Bragg's army with the prisoners taken and paroled at Vicksburg and Port Hudson, without waiting to have them exchanged. Utterly desperate now, the rebel chiefs disregard every barrier of honor that stands in the way of propping up their falling fortunes. When it suited the purposes of Jeff. Davis, he was a rigid stickler for the cartel and laws of war, but now that the balance of prisoners is heavily and hopelessly against him, he flings to the winds all compunctious visitings of conscience, and is said to be everywhere forcing paroled men who have not been exchanged to resume their muskets and places in the ranks. Already the rebel War Department is said to have numerous and serious difficulties with the higher and more honorable grades of officers captured at Port Hudson and Vicksburg, these latter refusing to bear arms or command their men to do so until duly released by exchange or otherwise from their paroles. Let it be known everywhere that all non-exchanged paroled prisoners captured with arms in their hands will be shot the moment their offense is made to appear. To this both Rosecrans and Burnside have pledged their honors, and the President promises that he will interfere with none of their drumhead sentences. —Washington cor. New York Herald.

OHIO GENERALS IN THE ARMY.—The most efficient Generals of the army are natives of Ohio. Grant was born in Clermont county, Sherman in Fairfield, Rosecrans in Delaware, M'Pherson in Sandusky and Gilmore in Lorain. They are all sons of whom Ohio and the United States may well be proud. Grant, M'Pherson, Gilmore and Rosecrans are of Methodist families. General Rosecrans was probably inclined to the Roman Church by the teachings of his mother, who, though she attended the Methodist Church and called one of her sons John Wesley, was all her life sympathizing with "Mother Church." Rosecrans' father left the Methodists in advanced life and professed Universalism; but the early training of the children was under Methodist institutions. The fathers of Grant and Gilmore are still living. Once Grant, senior, thought he would never send another boy to West Point, as it disqualified boys for business. Now he says, "I thank God that he ever gave me such a son;" and believes that West Point qualifies very well for some forms of business.

SUISUN CITY.—The Rev. W. R. Gober, in a late sermon at Suisun, gave his hearers a piece of information which may result hereafter in their spiritual good. He said:

I have lived in a great many little towns, and a great many country places; but I have never lived in any town or country place where there were so very few religious men and so small a number of those who belong to the church, as there are in Suisun. I must add, however, that I have never been treated with greater respect than I have received here. I have never been treated disrespectfully in any one instance since my residence among you.

There is one town, we think, which is more ungodly in a worldly sense, and that is Folsom, Sacramento county. We have been credibly informed that the minister in that place has manifested the nerve to preach a sermon in the presence of one hearer.—Appeal.

Eastern News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A Washington special of to-night says: The rebels, under Lee, occupy most of the old Bull Run battle ground and the road leading into London Valley. Last night at 6 o'clock, under cover of the coming darkness, he attempted to accomplish what he had failed to do all the way from the Rapidan—turn Meade's flank. The 2d corps resisted most vigorously, and drove him from the field. That corps, however, lost considerably in killed and wounded. The importance of the triumph cannot be overestimated, for the rebels had resolved to place themselves between the capital and the Army of the Potomac. Had they succeeded, the result would be difficult to foresee. The artillery firing all night was most terrific, and from the hills of Centreville was witnessed by hundreds.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 15.—The following general order has been published:

The Major Gen. Commanding, announces to the army that the rear guard consisting of the 2d corps, Gen. Warren's was attacked yesterday while marching by the flank. The enemy, after a spirited contest, was repulsed, losing a battery of five guns, two colors and 450 prisoners.

Among the rebels killed in yesterday's battle are Gen. Cook and Colonels Ruffin and Thompson. We have lost nothing on the march and are now in a strong and safe position. Col. Mallon of the 42d New York was killed. He is the highest officer on our side who met that fate. Our losses are not over 200 in all, while the enemy left on the field over 400 killed and wounded.

The 3d corps, moving on Monday night from the Rappahannock station to get possession of the turnpike to Warrenton, fell in with an overwhelming force of the enemy. It immediately deployed, gave battle and routed the enemy, after a fight of nearly two hours. Our loss was 34 killed and 160 wounded. On Tuesday morning the 2d corps met the enemy in the same position, in increased force. The enemy, in concealment, opened on us by surprise. The fight was desperate for a short time, when the 2d corps fell back with considerable loss.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Times's Army of the Potomac correspondence of the 14th says: The rebels made two desperate but unsuccessful attempts to-day to whip this army in detail and destroy the trains. In both they most signally failed. Just at day-break, between Catlett's station and Auburn, Stewart and A. P. Hill made a simultaneous attack upon Gen. Gregg's cavalry and the 2d army corps. Almost the first intimation given of their presence was the opening of batteries upon the 2d corps. Our troops were speedily in position, and the enemy was repulsed with considerable loss.

Late in the afternoon Hill made another dash to cut off the 2d corps. He first attacked the rear of the 5th corps, killing three of the Pennsylvania reserves and wounding 15 or 20 more. When the head of the 2d corps had reached Kittle Run, near Bristow, Hill made a terrible onslaught on both corps. The Second Corps was on the east side of the railroad track, and used the road embankment at several points for breastworks with decided advantage. The enemy charged at one time up to the embankment, when a portion of the 2d corps charged in turn, capturing 700 or 800 prisoners and one battery. Several charges were made, and each time the enemy were forced back with great slaughter, leaving their killed and wounded in our hands. A rapid artillery fire was kept up on both sides until long after dark, when the enemy gave up and retired.

Our trains are all safe. The 1st Maine cavalry, which was cut off on Monday night near Jefferson, across the Rappahannock, reached Bristow Station on Tuesday night. The regiment escaped with the loss of one squad. All our army behaved handsomely.

I have not been able to obtain a full list of our killed and wounded, but it is not large. Capt. Ball of the 3d Minnesota was wounded badly, under most aggravating circumstances. When the enemy charged, they finding themselves in a dangerous place, waved their hands in token of surrender. At this instant Capt. Ball sprang to the top of the embankment, when a volley was fired at him, the shots taking effect. The Minnesotians returned the fire, and many rebels suffered death in retaliation for this act of treachery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The steamer Ocean Queen has arrived from Aspinwall, with the California passengers. She brings Isthmus dates to the 7th. Gen. Mosquera has declared the United States of Colombia in a state of war, and ordered a levy of 8,000 men.

The billiard match of 1,500 points took place for the championship of America between Kavanaugh and Screiter. The former won by 785 points.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—The Commercial's Chattanooga correspondent confirms the reported mutiny in Bragg's army. It was occasioned by the refusal of the Georgia militia to remain longer in active service. They represented that they had volunteered only to drive the Federals out of their own State. Bragg refused to grant them permission to return home, and they stacked arms. Longstreet's men were ordered into line and discharged several volleys at the men, 60 of whom were killed, and 200 badly wounded. In addition to this affair, the arrest of Gen. Polk had created considerable bad feeling in Bragg's army, and disaffected rebels were coming into our lines every day.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—Dispatches from the West say the rebels lost 400 killed and wounded in the late fight at Marshall, Saline county. Many squads are striving to get South, but will be stopped at the Osage, as every ford of that river is guarded by fresh troops. The largest bands of Shelby's force went West after the battle, for the purpose, it is thought, of concentrating on Cinnabar Creek, with Quantrell and Jackman. Gen. Brown was at Sedalia yesterday, where he divided his force and sent them on in pursuit of the flying rebels.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Money unchanged; sterling exchange, 168; gold decidedly lower, opening at 155, and closing at 152¼@152½; Government securities firmer at 109½; Pacific Mail Company, 223.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Last night, about eight o'clock, according to messengers from Meade's army, information reached Gen. Meade's headquarters that a corps of the rebel army, supposed to be A. P. Hill's, had moved front in the direction of Leesburg. The Star says a heavy reconnoisance has started in the direction of Aldie.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16th.—The special telegram to the Tribune, from Chattanooga the 15th, says that since the 5th no hostile demonstrations have been made on our front. The rebel batteries on the north-eastern slope of Lookout Mountain have been withdrawn, and those which are left remain silent. Yesterday our guns on the left and right compelled Bragg to remove his headquarters from Missionary Ridge, and drove away the whole signal corps on Lookout Mountain. Up to noon to-day both sides have been quiet. A small party of rebel sharpshooters have fired for several hours from the south bank of the Tennessee upon trains and detachments of troops moving over the road along the north bank to Bridgeport and Stevenson, and several men and animals have been killed and wounded. A disposition of troops has been made to drive them away. The damage done the Nashville and Stevenson road by Wheeler has been fully repaired, and trains were running regularly. The rebel cavalry had been closely followed by ours on their raid, and attacked and defeated on several occasions. They are now reported completely scattered between the Elk and Duck rivers. A rebel picket came into our lines yesterday, and reports the enemy building pontoons. This indicates the intention of an attempt to dislodge us from our position by a flanking movement across the river, which will be provided against by Gen. Rosecrans. There has been no communication with Gen. Burnside for several days.

The steamer Columbia, from New Orleans the 10th, has arrived. The only item of interest in the papers is found in the rebel Mississippian, which says that the Federals had occupied Monroe, La. Dick Taylor was retreating to Shreveport, and the Federals would advance as soon as reinforced.

The transport Union arrived to-day, and reports that on the 11th she captured the English blockade running steamer Spaulding, with a valuable cargo from Nassau. Four rebel colonels were captured on her.

DISLOYALTY IN THE CONFEDERACY.—The following was taken from a late number of the Atlanta, Ga., Chronicle & Sentinel:

It is very evident that there are numbers of disloyal persons in the Confederacy. They are generally found in our business cities. They plainly show by their conversation, by the wishes they express and by their acts, which speak louder than words, that they are not with us. Measures are on foot in various sections to rid our country of this class of persons. Meetings have already been held in three places in Georgia and the justly indignant people have expressed their sentiments in a way that cannot be mistaken by disloyal persons. We have published the action of the people of Griffin and vicinity, also of the residents of Putnam county. Elsewhere will be found the resolutions adopted by the citizens of Atlanta. It is time that every community had acted on the fact that a secret foe is worse than an open enemy, and had taken measures to send all who can be proved to entertain sentiments injurious in the least to our cause, beyond our lines. The people in this region should not be slumbering when our fellow citizens elsewhere are on the alert. All should remember that the "price of liberty is eternal vigilance." We should treat our enemies as enemies wherever we find them. Although they may have been in our midst for a great many years, they have no claim upon our friendship. In fact they are less deserving of kind treatment than those of our foes we capture in the field. There is no mistake on one point: "a secret foe is more to be feared than an open enemy."

A VALUABLE BITE.—The handsome young ladies who recently attended the tables at the Crystal Palace Fair, near London, sold choice cigars to their admirers, and obtained an enormous advance on the common price by simply biting off, first, the end to be placed in the smoker's mouth.

NO DISPATCH.—The following note, received overland stage last evening, will explain absence of our customary telegram:

YREKA, Oct. 19th, 1863.

To OREGONIAN: Line has been down between here and Marysville since Saturday ning; and up to this evening we have unable to find break. It will certainly O. K. to-morrow or next day.

OP'R YREKA.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—Shortly after the entertainment to be given by the "Corcordi-" of the Portland Academy and Female inary had commenced, in the Academy building, and while the room was crowded, centre stanchion beneath the floor gave with a startling crash, and the flooring seven or eight inches with a suddenwell calculated to awaken serious apprehensions of a dangerous and promiscuous defor a distance of twelve feet. No one hurt, however, and some pretty good time made in leaving the hall. The party summarily dispersed are invited to meet the Methodist church on Friday evening when the purposes for which they conlast evening will be carried out. We told that the defaulting stanchion, instead solid timber, consisted merely of four of inch cedar, nailed together like a box ends. Repairs are to be commenced mediately.

ARRIVAL OF THE OCEAN STEAMER.—The mer Sierra Nevada, Capt. Conner, from Francisco via Victoria, arrived here three o'clock, yesterday afternoon. We indebted to Purser Wyman for the following memoranda and list of passengers:

MEMORANDA.—Steamer Sierra Nevada, Francis Conner, nder, left San Francisco October 17th, 1863, at four P M; arrived at Esquimault on the 21st at eight left again same day at 9:30 P M; crossed the Columbia river bar on the 22d at 4:30 P M, and arrived at Portland the 23d at three P M.

PASSENGERS.—Lieut C D Emory, U S A, Mrs R P Meade child, Dr Crane, wife and child, J A Sperry, W Currier, Glover, S Follmore, J W Brown, N Jordan, T E Wil J M Hudson, O C Parks, S Sohun, S B Reid, C Clark, Houghton, C Offbort, W J Foley, G M Williams, Mrs and children, Mrs Evans and son, J Goodwin, Smith, J Kent, J Emerling, G W Hughes, J Howard, Buchanan, L Levy, J McDonald, W Maroncor, A Frank wife, W Woodson, J Ward, T Morgan, G Chapin, J Bond, Woodman, E R M'Ginnis, L Burns, (J G Russell, Wells, & Co's messenger) and 74 in the steerage. 450 tons freight.

B. H. WYMAN, Purser.

GAINING TIME.—During the past few days clear dry weather, the Overland Stage Line have been constantly gaining time in their daily trips. The stage arrived last evening hours in advance of schedule time. The energy and perseverance exhibited by the contractors in overcoming all obstacles without regard to expense, that they may fulfil their agreements, reflects the highest credit upon all concerned.

HORSE TRAINING.—We were one of a small audience who witnessed a horse training exhibition last evening, on Washington street. stubborn horse and a contrary rider were going through a series of ground and lofty tumbling, to the manifest disgust of the rider who occasionally occupied his saddle, and at other times ran great risk of soiling his riding habit in the gutter. While the two were thus amusingly employed a third—a man, not a horse—stood by to whip the animal up. Of course only the animal was at fault. Had these practitioners more closely consulted the system taught by Rarey, there would have been less of this demonstration.

PRESENTATION.—We have been shown a handsome gold watch, valued at $200, which the ladies of the Church will present to Father Macken this evening. It bears the following inscription: "Presented to the Rev. P. Macken by the ladies of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, as a token of esteem. Portland, Oct. 20, 1863."

OFF FOR THE WARS.—Capt. John N. King, late of the Commissary Department, Vancouver, takes his departure for Washington on the Sierra Nevada, to-morrow morning, to enter upon the active duties of his profession in the field. May he deserve and receive promotion, and live to see the last enemy of his country submissive and faithful to its flag.

PASSENGERS.—A very large number of passengers came down the river last evening, who, mingling with those of the Sierra Nevada, gave to our streets quite a stirring appearance.

GOLD DUST.—Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express brought down over five hundred pounds of gold, or about $100,000 worth, on the Hunt last night.

VANCOUVER LADIES' SANITARY AID SOCIETY.—At a meeting of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society, held in Vancouver, October 22d inst., it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the Society be tendered to Hon. Amory Holbrook, for his able and patriotic address in behalf of the object of the Society.

It was also further unanimously

Resolved, That thanks be tendered to Captain Turnbull of the steamer Vancouver for his uniform kindness and liberality to those traveling on his boat, on business connected with the Society.

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the gentlemen of the same.

ANNIE C. COVINGTON, Secretary.

SANITARY FUND.—The receipt of $437 70 in coin and $50 in currency from Mrs. E. Ainsworth, Treasurer of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society, is acknowledged, and several gentlemen who have contributed $2 50 in coin and $47 in currency, request that amount to be added—making in all $537 20.

A. HOLBROOK.

A KING OR EMPEROR FOR THE UNITED STATES.—We heard this subject discussed a few evenings since, some favoring and others opposed, as all good Americans ought to be; but all agreed that Heuston, Hastings & Co., of Montgomery street, corner of Sutter, San Francisco, were the Kings and Emperors in their line, for no firm ever yet started in California can possibly vie with them.

Billious Fever cured.

Portsmouth Ohio, April 1, 1859.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—I have been, for years subject to attacks of BILLIOUS FEVER; and sometimes I have been laid up for months, and my system left in a feeble state by the use of strong medicine, which was given to me by my physician.

I have been using Dr. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS for some time. I find that I can break these attacks in a day or so, and escape entirely the fever. My daughter had an attack of DYSPEPSIA, which distressed her much; she could not eat scarcely anything without becoming nauseated at her stomach continually. Some time since she got and has been using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and she now is like another being. I have found also that they are the most valuable Pills for breaking up Colds, Headache, Pains in the Side and Back. I would not be without them in my family.

In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Diarrhœa and Pain in the Bowels Cured.

Carthage, O., Nov. 25, 1853.

Dr. O. R. Baker—Much Esteemed Friend: I have had a severe attack of Diarrhœa, attended with griping pains, and was reduced very low. I tried many different medicines, but all to no purpose, until I got a bottle of your PAIN PANACEA, and commenced its use. The first dose put a quietus on the griping pains, and I had not used two twenty-five cent bottles before I was entirely cured. I also recommended it to a friend, who was attacked with cramp colic, and suffering with excruciating pains, and three doses entirely cured him.

A Bachelor's Reverie.

Fifty to-day! Fifty—little chance now of my having a wife and a house full of "little responsibilities," as Fanny Wright calls them. Heigho! I'm getting to be—no, not a "middle-aged gentleman," for I've been that any time the last ten years; no, I'm a gentleman declining in years, and may advertise for a housekeeper without giving a handle to scandal to make free with my character. Twenty-five years ago, and I should have affronted the man who foretold that I should be sitting this day in an arm-chair, newspaper in hand, breakfast before me, one foot on a cushion, and only one cup and two eggs on the table. Newspapers are stupid things; I'd much rather chat over my morning meal.

Why the deuce am I not married? Nobody makes tea fit to drink now; and the toast never comes up to me hot. What capital tea Lucy Smith used to make! Poor Lucy! I wonder what made me think of her? People said Lucy and I would certainly make a match; and so we should, I suspect, if it hadn't been for that cursed cousin of hers. I'm sure she would have married me if I had asked her; but I kept putting it off day after day, and he—cut me out, and be hanged to him. I was a young gentleman, then, and thought I could marry whenever I liked. They went away to the west and got rich; he's a member of Congress, and she has grown fat, and rides about in her carriage, with two or three grown-up daughters—pretty girls, too, as I'm told, but they'll never be like their mother. I've a ribbon of hers, that she used to wear around her slender waist, and I bribed her little brother to steal it for me, with the loan of my fowling-piece; and sometimes, when it rains, and I feel sentimental, I take it out of my writing-desk and look at it awhile and think I'll throw it into the fire—but I don't, though; and there it is yet in the secret drawer, with my mother's picture, and the last lock of my own hair. They make capital wigs, now, by the way; nobody seems to suspect that my curls are not the natural crop. Lucy used to say that my hair was beautiful, and I'm almost certain she cut off a lock once, when I was asleep on the sofa. I wonder whether she's lost any of her splendid teeth; mine have stood it out pretty well, but they're going. Old Parmly said hers would last a long time, and he ought to know. I must go to him and get him to make me a couple of new ones.

What shall I do with myself to-day? I've given up business, and made money enough to last me my time. I've no one to leave it to when I'm gone. Where's the use of going on adding dollar to dollar, and acre to acre, unless one has children to set up! Nine marriages in the paper to-day! Nine husbands and nine wives created since yesterday morning. I dare say they'll all have young sprouts—say four apiece on an average; that's thirty-six little mouths to be stuffed with bread and butter, and seventy-two little feet to buy shoes for, and two hundred and eighty-eight little fingers to wash and keep clean! No fool of a job that for the nine papas and mammas! I was always remarkably fond of children.

There is a newly married couple moved into the house over the way, on purpose to plague me, I do believe; they seem to be very fond of each other, and dreadfully happy! There's a gig comes to the door every afternoon, and he hands his wife into it so carefully, and she smiles at him so brightly as they drive off, that I'm almost tempted to wish they might break their necks before they come back. That's a nice looking girl that has come to stay with them during the honey moon; she's the bride's sister or something, I dare say; the prettiest foot and the most roguish eyes I've ever seen—except Lucy Smith's. I wonder if she's engaged to be married; I don't see any very suspicious young men come to the door, and ; But what the duce is it to me whether she is or not? I'm an old batchelor, and must go down to the grave without leaving any one to cry for me. I should like, though, to see the girl nearer; it's easy enough to get introduced into the house, and though I'm too old to marry, there's no reason that I know of, why an old fellow like me shouldn't do the polite thing to a new comer into the neighborhood. I've a new coat coming home, that my artist says, will make me look fifteen years younger—rather impertinent, by the way. And I'm so amazingly old, after all. When I set down to breakfast, I feel rather bluish, and thought myself quite a Methusaleh. Poh, no such thing; I can walk as briskly as ever—almost—I can ride, sing, dan—, no, I'd better leave out the dancing, but what of that? I'm a good looking, middle aged man, tired of living alone, and, hang me, but I'll make one more try for the ring, if I die for it. There's a pretty girl over the way, and I'll send over a basket of grapes with my compliments.

"Lewis of Lanesboro"—A Singular Chapter in Politics.—Among the curiosities captured by General Banks at Port Hudson, was a Massachusetts "coalitionist." It will be remembered that in 1851 the old Whig party of that State was defeated and broken up by a coalition of the Free Soilers and Democrats. Through this political combination, George S. Boutwell, Democrat, was elected Governor by the people, and Charles Sumner, Free Soiler, was elected to the United States Senate by the Legislature. It will also be recollected by many that the contest in the Legislature for the election of Sumner was long and close. This was in consequence of some of the Democrats failing to keep faith. They thought Sumner was too radical because he would not agree to support the Constitution as they understood it, but declared that he would support it as he understood it. For days the balloting continued, and Sumner's election was only prevented by the fact that some members voted double each time, which was shown by the circumstance that one more vote was thrown each time than there were members voting.

Among those from the Democratic side of the coalition who swallowed Sumner with his interpretation of the Constitution, radicalism and all, was "Lewis of Lanesboro." Sumner having only enough votes to elect him, Mr. Lewis, as much as any other man who voted, could claim that he gave Mr. Sumner his election. Now for the sequel.

Singular as it may appear, Lewis was a South Carolinian by birth, and what is still more singular, this same Lewis recently turned up at Port Hudson, upon the place being surrendered to Gen. Banks. He was in command of a South Carolina rifle company. Gen. Banks, who belonged to the Democratic side of the same coalition, knew Lewis well, and recognized him among the prisoners. The General was, of course, amused at finding an old Massachusetts politician, with whom he had acted, in such a disgraceful position. Lewis, when he caucused with Banks, years ago, little thought that he would ever be caught by him in such an unpleasant plight. It occurs to us, moreover, that Preston S. Brooks, when he assaulted Sumner, on the floor of the Senate, would have desisted from his infernal work if he had been told that Sumner held his place by virtue of the vote of a South Carolinian! Indeed, we believe he would have transferred his blows from Sumner to Lewis.—Washington Republican.

How to Administer Castor Oil to Children.—The medical fraternity of Paris recommend the following way of administering castor oil to children:

The quantity of oil prescribed is poured into a small earthen pan, over a moderate fire, an egg broken into it and stirred up so as to form something like what cooks call buttered eggs; when it is done, a little salt or sugar, or a few drops of orange water, or some current jelly should be added. The sick child will eat it eagerly and never discover the fraud.

A gallant soldier was once heard to say that his only measure of courage was this: "Upon the first fire I look immediately upon myself as a dead man; I then fight the remainder of the day as regardless of danger as a dead man should be. All my limbs I carry out of the field I regard as so much saved out of the fire.

"You have a considerable floating population in this village, haven't you?" asked a stranger of one of the citizens of a village on the Mississippi.

"Well, yes, rather," was the reply; "about half the year the water is up to the second story windows."

How near akin laughter is to tears was shown when Rubens, with a single stroke of his brush, turned a laughing child in a painting to one crying; and our mothers, without being great painters, have often brought us in like manner from joy to grief by a single stroke.

Brigham Young, in one of his recent Sunday "sermons," bragged of the beauty of his wives, while one of the "brethren" claimed to have fifty-nine children, and defied any of the followers of the faith to show a more prolific record.

PROVIDENCE SCHOOL!
FOR YOUNG LADIES,

CONDUCTED BY

The Sisters of Charity,

VANCOUVER, W. T.

THIS INSTITUTION, which was commenced in the year 1856, is delightfully situated at Vancouver, on the north bank of the Columbia river. The beauty of the surrounding scenery, and the salubrity of the place, cannot be surpassed.

The course of studies embraces the various branches of a solid and useful education, and a particular attention is given to form the pupils to household duties and plain and fancy needle work.

Parents may rest satisfied that every care will be paid to the comfort of the young ladies placed at this Institution, whilst no pains will be spared to nourish in them those principles of virtue which alone can render education profitable.

No undue influence will be exercised over the religious opinions of the pupils; however, for the maintenance of good order, all are required to conform to the external discipline of the house.

Terms for Boarders:

For Board and Tuition, per quarter of 11 weeks	$40 00
" Washing, " "	10 00
" Music and use of Instrument "	17 00
" French, " "	6 00
" Board during vacation	25 00
" Washing " "	8 00

Books, stationery, beds and bedding will form extra charges.

Each pupil must be provided with a white muslin, a sky blue de laine, and a black de laine dress, made high in the neck, with long sleeves closing at the wrist, and a cape of the same material. Also, with six changes, six towels and sufficient number of pairs of shoes.

There is an annual vacation of six weeks, commencing with the first week of July, and ending with the third week of August. No other absence is allowed during the year except in case of serious illness.

No pupil is admitted for less than a quarter and no deduction can be made for time lost or quarter uncompleted, unless in the case above mentioned.

Pupils can enter at any period of the year, and are charged from the day of their admission into the Institution.

Visits are confined to Thursdays, and can only be made by parents, guardians, or persons authorized by the parents of pupils.

All correspondence is subject to the inspection of the Superioress.

Terms for Day Scholars:

Per quarter of eleven weeks	$6 00

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL,

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,
Loss of Memory,
Weak Nerves,
Horror of Disease,
Dimness of Vision,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System.
Hot Hands.
Dryness of the Skin.

Loss of Power,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Trembling,
Wakefulness,
Pain in the Back,
Flushing of the Body,
Eruptions on the Face,

Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTIC

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have *a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle of Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or W*hisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIE
AND THE FRIENDS OF

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbren, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
